

SABC 8 outraged over Bosasa funding allegation

The so-called SABC 8 has outright rejected claims that it benefited from a R100,000 donation by state capture-implicated Bosasa to cover their living expenses while suspended by former SABC COO Hlaudi Motsoeneng.

“The SABC 8 has learnt with dismay and disgust, the attempts to associate us with the Bosasa affair,” the remaining journalists said in a statement.

The statement is in response to a report by Times Live late on Tuesday stating that Bosasa allegedly donated R100,000 toward a crowdfunding campaign to assist the SABC 8 journalists in 2016.

This reportedly emerged in an email in which a senior Bosasa official instructs other officials to make the payment.
