Launch

The world's most creative companies are looking for you right now.

One of the most important drivers in any creative business is to find and recruit the best suitable fresh graduate talent.

And that is you.

Why? Because without a constant infusion of new and energised young talent, their creative output will decline.
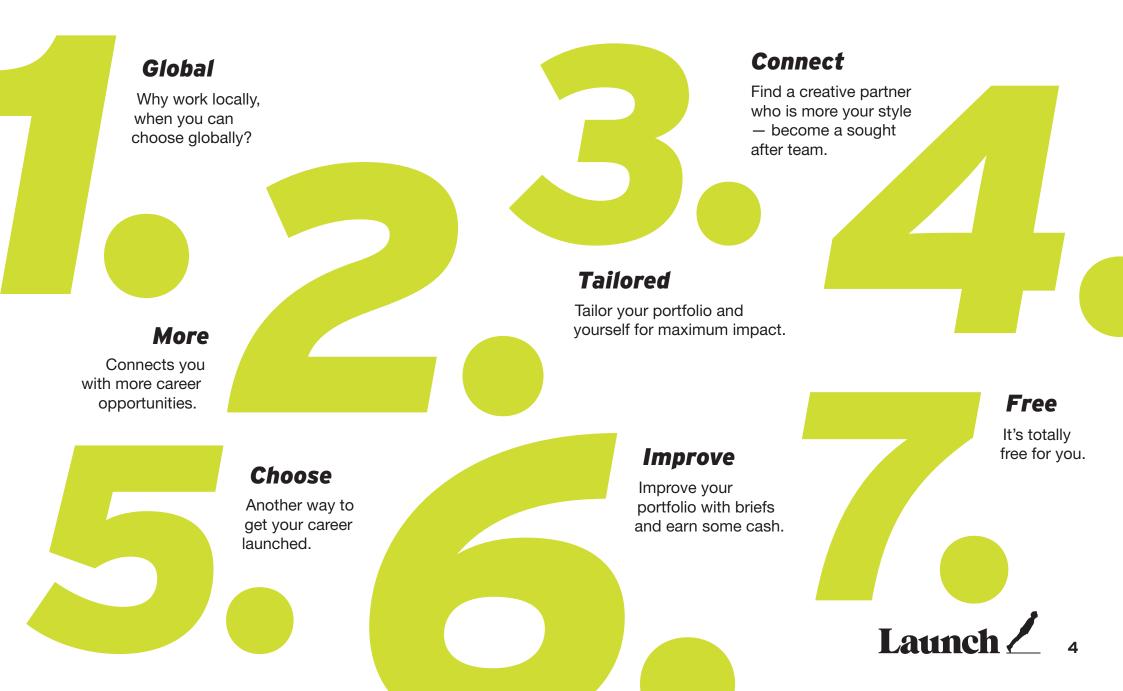

Yet connecting the right talent with the right organisation takes time, energy and money.

Launch offers, through a free portal an easy and effortless way for you connect with more opportunities and launch your career the right way.

In fact, it is so easy that all you have to do is upload your work and select where you want your career to start.

Launch

Why? Do we really need to spell it out?

1.

Global

Why work locally, when you can choose globally?

2.

More

Connects you with more career opportunities.

3.

Tailored

Tailor your portfolio and yourself for maximum impact.

Connect

Find a creative partner who is more your style — become a sought after team.

4.

5.

Choose

Another way to get your career launched.

6.

Improve

Improve your portfolio with briefs and earn some cash.

7.

Free

It's totally free for you.

Launch

How? The 10 second version

Students

- Students upload their portfolio (a maximum of 5 pieces in any format), complete a detailed profile, including selection of desired city/company to work in / for; discipline definition; and other criteria.

- Students can register as creative pairs.

- Schools have profiles.

- Students can participate in 'Talent' briefs and 'Launch of the Month' programme.

Launch

Organisations

- Organisations are notified via email and can view portfolios based on their criteria through a special online portal, and "watch" or contact for an interview.

- Organisations can push out briefs for recruitment or crowd sourced idea generation.

What else?

Talent Brief

Respond to live briefs from creative organisations who are specifically looking for skill sets like yours.

Launch of the Month

Enter your ideas into this monthly award and get recognition from your peers and potential employers for your talent. It is free, so get some free PR.

Respond to Pitches

Real life pitch briefs set by organisations inside Launch, where you can earn money for ideas, create work for your portfolios and gain real experience.

Code of Conduct

Launch has a Code of Conduct that all users – companies, schools / institutions / universities and individuals must agree to in order to register on the site. It is there to ensure no individual or organisation is disadvantaged in connecting talent and organisations.

Schools / Institutes / Universities

Profiles can be set and all students registered on the site will be linked to their schools overall portfolio.

Now, want some? ⌄

To register to use Launch, you will need to:

1.

Be a current student.

2.

Have up to 5 pieces of work to upload.

3.

Fill out information, including where you want to work (country or agency), your discipline, whether you are in a team, your school, your name and so on.

4.

Want to get your career launched.

Click here before you miss out on your career launching opportunity:

iamfreshtalent >