Dear Marie,

We are delighted with the exposure that The Houghton Hotel has received in the press / media of late.

The PR campaign was a great success and worked well in generating exposure for the Houghton Hotel alongside the 2015 Houghton Hotel John Robbie Invitational.

On behalf of the board of Seven and Twelve, which recently met, we want to convey our thanks as Grapevine has certainly exceeded our expectations!

Without doubt, the Grapevine Communications agency has excellent media contacts and relations in the property, hospitality and business sector and we enjoyed their passion and professionalism.

We look forward to Grapevine maintaining the momentum in the media for us.

All the best,

Arnold Forman
Financial Director
